Wednesday, Jan. 31, 2024 | 10:30 a.m.

ALBUQUERQUE – Tuesday, January 30, 2024—IMMEDIATE RELEASE—The Archdiocese of Santa Fe announced a special Mass to be held at Our Lady of the Annunciation on Jan. 31 at 10:30 a.m. to celebrate National Catholic Schools Week.

This Mass will bring together students, educators, and families to honor the rich legacy of over 100 years of Catholic education in the archdiocese.

Over the past week, Catholic schools throughout the nation have been engaged in a variety of activities and events to highlight the unique contributions of Catholic education. From academic achievements to community service initiatives, the focus has been on nurturing spiritual growth, academic excellence, and a commitment to social justice.

The Mass at Our Lady of the Annunciation serves as the pinnacle of these celebrations, providing an opportunity for reflection, gratitude, and communal worship. Most Reverend John C. Wester, Archbishop of Santa Fe, will preside over the Mass, delivering a message that underscores the importance of faith-based education in shaping well-rounded individuals.

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe appreciates all who recognize the integral role Catholic education has in shaping the character, values, and achievements of generations of students.
